

Historic, archived document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

62.71 =10352
OREGON GARDENS

515 N.E. Columbia Blvd.

Portland, Oregon

PLANT EXPLORATION
AND INTRODUCTION

Rec'd MAR 12 1935

Approved

Supplimentary list for our regular catalogue.

NURSERY GROWN WEST-ERN NATIVE PLANTS

Anemone Lyallii—

A miniature 'Anemone oregana' with white or soft pink flowers. 7 inches Each 25c

Berberis repens—

Limited stock of this prostrate member of Oregon-grape tribe. Prickly evergreen foliage and good heads of creamy yellow flowers make this a very desirable shrub. 12 inches Each 75c

Capanula species "Wollowa"—

An exceedingly dwarfed campanula of four in. which resembles C. rotundifolia, in foliage but has only 1 or 2 blossoms on its 2 inch stems. Being offered for the first time It remains a compact beauty in our nursery for several years. Each 75c

Claytonia megarrhiza—

Handsome rosettes of succulent leaves The form we are offering has numerous rosy pink flowers on 2 inch stems. A beautiful alpine. Each 50c

Clematis alpina occidentalis—

18 in. procumbent stems, dissected foliage and large bluish flowers. Very rare, stock limited. Each $1.00

Cornus canadensis—

This little bunchberry is known and loved by all. We are able to offer well rooted plants in this creeping dogwood. Shade and leaf mold. Each 30c

Cypripedium fasciculatum—

A dwarf 2 leaved species with clusters of 2 to 5 reddish flowers. Rare and interesting 5 in. Each 50c

Delphinium columbianum—

Small refined species with fine blue flowers Each 30c

Delphinium Menziesii—

Flighty hairy spotted leaves and blue flowers on 15 in. stems from a compact tuber. Attractive. Each 25c

Disporum Smithii—

An excellent plant for the woodland. The pale yellow flowers are followed by bright Orange berries 12 in. Each 25c

DODOCATHEON

These early flowering rock plants are of great beauty and charm. Many are deliciously scented. flowers in pink to rose and purple.

Dodocatheon campestre—

Very dwarf species, compact rosettes of pointed leaves. Each 25c

Dodocatheon conjugens

A low growing plant with elongate foliage and umbels of curiously inverted pink flowers. Ea. 25c

Dodocatheon Cusickii—

Narrow slightly sticky leaves and pink flowers on wiry 8 in. stems. Each 30c

Dodocatheon pauciflorum—

A species with few flowers, but those few larger and darker than is usual in this group. A very fine bird bill. Each 30c

Dodocatheon species "Colrigo"

We consider this to be the finest of all; large pink flowers, with broad creamy bands. Distinctive pale foliage 10 in. Each 40c

Erigeron howellii—

Neat smooth leaves, large white or pinkish flowers on 12 in. stems. Each 25c

Erigeron Leibergii—

Charming and distinctive alpine daisy with lavender flowers on 5 in. stems. Each 50c

Erigeron species "Olympic" —

This very rare tufted alpine daisy has gray spoon shaped leaves and broad rayed white flowers. 6 in. Each 50c

Heuchera micrantha—

Glossy lobed leaves and gossamer panicles of tiny white flowers. Fine for the dry wall. Each 25c

Isopyrum hallii—

Rare thalictrum-like plant with ferny foliage. For woodland or wild garden 15 in. Each 35c

Lewisia species "Ingala"—

Resembles columbiana but it is a distinct form. Flowers more numerous and more striped. foliage larger and grayish. Each 30c

Lewisia Nevadensis—

Tiny species which shed its leaves in summer. Numerous white flowers. 1 in. Each 20c

Lewisia Tweedyii—

Truly one of the most beautiful American rock plants. Very large apricot flowers on 6 in. stems. Must have well drained soil not too rich. Each 75c

Mertensia nutans—

This fibrous rooted species has narrow leaves and drooping clusters of large blue bells on 10 in. stems. Rare and beautiful. Each 50c

Mertensia pubescens—

Narrow downy gray leaves and clusters of sky-blue bells. 6 in. Each 50c

Polemonium elegans—

Tiny alpine Jacob's Ladder with very fine foliage, light blue yellow eyed flowers. Very desirable species for cool location in the rockery. 4 in. Each 50c

Pentstemon gairdneri—

A gray leaved desert shrub with short spikes of soft blue flowers. Needs sun and drainage 6 in. Each 50c

Ranunculus triternatus—

A choice butter-cup of recent introduction with much dissected ferny foliage and large bright yellow flowers. Sunny location well drained soil. Each 35c

Synthlipsis lanuginosa—

Alpine species with gray feathery foliage and spikes of deep blue flowers. 3-4 in. Each 50c

Syntherisma schizantha—

Deciduous plant with large toothed leaves and spikes of fringed violet flowers. A rare and lovely shade. 6 in. Each 50c

Silene ingramii—

This, the finest western American silene, is a glorified Silene hookeri. It is larger and more robust with larger flowers which are of a deep creamy red. Each 50c

Sisyrinchium inflatum—

Flowers more open and lighter colored than the S. grandiflorum. A fine plant. Each 40c

Vancouveria chrysantha—

A dainty epimedium-like plant with lacy leaves and graceful spikes of creamy inverted flowers. Each 35c

Viola Flettii—

A rock violet from the high Olympics, with rounded bronzy leaves and big open-faced rosy purple blossoms, with pleasingly contrasting yellow center. Thrives in well drained soil in N. or east exposure. Persistent bloomer. Each 50c

Hardy Native Ferns

Asplenium trichomanes—

Polished black stems and tiny evergreen leaflets. For shaded corner in the rockery 6 in. Each 25c

Cheilanthes gracillima—

Tiny lacy dark green fronds, wooly on the under side. Enjoys well drained soil with some leaf mold. 4 in. Each 50c

Cheilanthes siliquosa (Pellea densa)—

Dwarf tufted rock fern of great merit. The small fronds are lacy and thickly set. Each 35c

Dryopteris dilatata—

Graceful evergreen fern with lacy triangular fronds. Shade. 1 to 2 feet. Each 25c

Pityrogramma triangularis—

Dark green triangular fronds powdered with gold on the back 8 in. Each 25c

Polystichum Andersonii—

Rare evergreen fern for well drained slightly shaded position. 18 to 24 in. Each 75c

Polystichum Lemmoni—

Evergreen alpine species with leaflets thickly set on the stalks. Rare and beautiful. Excellent for the rockery 8 in. Each 75c

Polystichum scopulinum—

Medium sized species suitable for the rock wall. Compact evergreen foliage. Rare & choice, 12 in. Each 75c

Woodwardia radicans—

Large and strikingly handsome plant for the shade. Hardy to the zero mark. Each 50c

IMPORTED PLANTS FOR THE
ROCK GARDEN
MAR 12 1935

All Have Proved To Be Fine
Hardy Perennials In Our Nursery

Alyssum spinosum—

Silvery little bushlets 6 in. high with heads of small white flowers in summer. Each 25c

Aquilegia jocunda—

The true species of this large flowered columbine, with the broad blue sepals and clear white petals, dwarf compact foliage & 15 in. high flower stalks. Each 50c

Buckenthalia specuifolia—

An exceedingly fine novelty. A dwarfed heather like shrub with dense foliage of brilliant green and fine spikes of bright pink flowers. A fine new shrub. Each 50c

Cotyledon simplicifolia—

Thick scalloped leaves and arching spikes of yellow flowers on 10 in. stems. Each 25c

Erodium chaemaedryoides roseum;

Another fine novelty is offered in this truly lime loving plant, which forms a neat mass of dark green scolloped leaves above which are carried numerous pink stars, each on its own stem. 2 in. Each 35c

Helianthemum rhodanthum carneum

Silvery leaved shrub with large pink flowers. Each 25c

Houstonia coerulea—

Eastern States native. These dainty little blue-ets are well known to most gardeners. Its little four petaled blue flowers have an almost irresistible appeal to flower lovers and should be in every garden. Each 25c

Hypericum rhodopaeum—

Attractive silvery foliage and good sized golden flowers on 8 in. stems.

Ilex pernyi "A new holly"—

Closely packed evergreen leaves and brilliant berries combine to make this an outstanding shrub. Well rooted pot cuttings. Each 25c

Linum marginense "Six Hills Variety"—

Light blue flowers all summer. The best of the taller flaxes. 18 in. Each 35c

Pratia angulata

Forms a mat of little fleshy leaves from which springs a great number of starry white flowers followed by purple berries in the fall. Drainage and moisture. Each 30c

Ranunculus gramineus—

Handsome species with tufts of grass like leaves and an abundance of bright yellow flowers on 10 inch stems. Stands full sun. Each 35c

Saxifraga unbrosa primuloeides—

Small compact form of the well-known "London pride." Sprays of pinkish flowers on 8 in. stems. Each 35c

Scutellaria japonica—

Soft grayish foliage and spikes of tubular flue flowers in summer. 8 in. Each 35c